F. Visas and transportation

Visas

Participants who require a visa must contact the competent diplomatic or consular authorities of Belgium and apply for a Schengen short-stay (C) visa at least three weeks prior to their intended date of arrival in Belgium. In countries where Belgium does not have diplomatic or consular representation, visa applications can be submitted to the consular authority of a State party to the Schengen Agreement acting on behalf of Belgium in the country concerned. Participants are expected to make their own visa arrangements.

Transportation

1. Participants are responsible for making their own arrangements for transportation between the airport and Brussels city centre.

2. Arriving at the airport, participants can take a taxi to their hotel. There are also trains and buses to the city centre:

- Taxi: Taxis with a taximeter are permanently available in front of the arrivals hall. The fare from the airport to the Brussels city centre is normally around 45 €.

- Train: The airport train station is located below the terminal (level -1). Up to 6 trains an hour connect the airport to Brussels North, Brussels Central and Brussels South stations (about a 15 minute ride). Brussels Central and Brussels South are the stations that are situated closest to the hotels.

- Bus: The bus station is located one floor down from the arrivals hall (level 0). The Airport Line is a 30-minute express service between Brussels Airport and the European quarter, situated not very far from the hotels. From Monday to Friday 8 p.m. the Airport Line is operated as an express service with number 12. On weekdays after 8 p.m., and the whole day on Saturday, Sunday and holidays the Airport Line is operated as a regular service with number 21.
